

October PTA meeting review

Thank you to the new people we have had at the PTA meetings. We enjoy seeing new faces and encourage you to engage in what PTA is doing by being active in our meetings and committees!

Mrs. Evans has been very responsive to the PTA's suggestion of having a Common Core Curriculum meeting. She has organized this meeting for November 6th at 7:00 at Ridgely. A representative from BCPS English Arts & Math will speak regarding changes in the curriculum. Registration is requested so we know how many people plan to attend. Please contact Mrs. Glenda Lehman, Guidance Secretary, 410-887-7776 to register. The meeting will take place in room 103, depending on reservations. Thank you Mrs. Evans for scheduling this!

American Education week (Nov. 18-22) is on the horizon. Come in and see your students and teachers in action. Enjoy a snack and coffee and order spirit wear, just in time for holiday gift giving. This is your PTA in action!

CRAFT FAIR

Volunteers are needed to sign up to help. Look for a signup genius Email later this week. It is easy to help for an hour or two. Help is needed on Friday night Nov. 8th to set up as well as on Saturday, Nov. 9th.

Well done Ashley Brown and Debbie Gill, who are working diligently on the craft fair and silent auction. Vendor spaces are full and we still need donations for the silent auction. If you have a business, or know of a business who can support us; please help. Download the paperwork you need on the RMS PTA website <http://www.ridgelymiddlepta.com>.

Upcoming Baltimore County meetings:

GT Advisory meeting at the ESS Building on Greenwood Rd. Nov. 6 at 7:00. BCPS Superintendent Dr. Dallas Dance will be speaking about the GT programs.

In our last issue we mentioned the importance of the upcoming Boundary Redistricting. Here is the schedule for upcoming meetings, we urge parents to try to attend and report back to the PTA on these issues. Meetings begin at 6:00 at Cockeysville Middle School, 10401 Greenside Drive, Cockeysville, MD 21030

- Wednesday, October 30
- Wednesday, November 13
- Wednesday, November 20

(Any postponements due to inclement weather will be posted on the BCPS website, www.bcps.org.)

Congratulations Corner

Ms. Kline was recently married, congrats Mrs. Ging!!

Ms. Brown is getting married next week. Her new name will be Mrs. DeLuca.

Veronica C. won a Virtual Arts contest conducted through the French program.

Out of 700 entries for the Save a Limb tee shirt competition, we have a winner at Ridgely! Samantha P.'s artwork was selected for the contest and she won an iPad. BCPS Superintendent Dr. Dallas Dance came to Samantha's homeroom to celebrate with the students.
